

2022 Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarships

Johnson Investment Counsel Recognizes Outstanding Students

Jason Jackman, CFA, President, and Chief Investment Officer of Johnson Investment Counsel, presented the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship to two outstanding students, Caitlin Kelhoffer and Regan Henderson.

Caitlin Kelhoffer is the daughter of Fund Administration and Compliance Associate, Jennifer Kelhoffer and Bart Kelhoffer. She is a 2022 graduate of Mercy McAuley High School. Caitlin is an incoming freshman at Ohio University where she intends to study Biology.

Regan Henderson is the daughter of Director of Southeastern Michigan Market and Portfolio Manager, Joseph Henderson, CLU®, CFP® and Andrea Henderson. She is a 2021 graduate of Northville High School. Regan is an incoming sophomore at the University of Michigan where she is pursuing a double major in Economics and Psychology.

Johnson Investment Counsel established the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship in remembrance of Patrick Chong, a Portfolio Manager Assistant at JIC, who died of colon cancer in 2002 at the age of 31. In his memory, JIC annually awards two $3,500 scholarships to children of Johnson Investment Counsel employees.

A committee of educators and administrators at the University of Cincinnati judges applicants on the basis of scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, community involvement, and proven potential in college curriculum.
