JOHNSON TRUST COMPANY ATTORNEY RECEIVES CERTIFICATION IN ESTATE PLANNING, TRUST AND PROBATE LAW

Johnson Trust Company is proud to announce one of its attorneys, Alethea Teh Busken, Esq., received the Ohio State Bar Association's certification in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law. This rigorous certification in one of 11 practice areas from the Ohio Bar allows attorneys to position themselves as specialists in their field. Alethea is one of only 13 lawyers in the state to be newly certified this year, joining more than 1,300 attorneys certified as specialists statewide since 1998.

"Alethea's certification as a specialist by the Ohio Bar is a testament to her expertise in this area and her determination to meet the highest standard in her field," said Mary Burns, Esq., Vice President of Estate Planning, Senior Trust Counsel and Principal at Johnson Investment Counsel and member of Johnson Trust Company Management Team. "This achievement also benefits our clients, allowing us to provide a high level of service and expertise."

Johnson Trust Company, a division of Johnson Investment Counsel, has an integrated team of estate planning and trust experts available to our clients, prioritizing our commitment to offering comprehensive and customized wealth management needs for all families and organizations.
